How we will use the information you give us

Welsh Government will be looking at your answers in this response form.

Sometimes we ask other organisations to help us make decisions. They may also see the answers that people gave in the response forms.

We will make sure we follow the law when we use your information.

We will write a report about what people said.

We might write some people's answers in full, with their names and part of the address (such as the town where you live) in the report or on the internet.

When you send us your answers, please tell us if you do not want us to write your name and address in the report or on the internet.

The data protection laws give you the right to:

- Know what information we have about you and how you can see it.
- Make us change any mistakes in the information about you.
- Ask us not to use the information in some cases.
- Ask us to delete the information we have about you in some cases.
- Move the information about you somewhere else in some cases.
- Complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

If you would like to know more about how your information is kept and used please contact us at:
