What is Dydd Miwsig Cymru? 🤔

Dydd Miwsig Cymru – Welsh Language Music Day (Friday 7th February 2020) – celebrates all genres of Welsh language music and aims to encourage people who don't speak the language to listen to songs from the vibrant Welsh language music scene. We'll be celebrating the fifth annual Welsh Language Music Day with gigs all over the country.

Last year we saw more than 300 schools across Wales celebrate Dydd Miwsig Cymru. This year we want even more people to get involved, in particular Welsh language learners who can use miwsig to help their learning.

It really is easy to take part.

What can my secondary school do? 🚌

There are plenty of ways for schools to get involved on Friday 7th February to celebrate the fifth #DyddMiwsigCymru.

- Listen to the Dydd Miwsig Cymru playlist throughout the day, curated by BBC Radio 1 and 6Music DJ Huw Stephens
- Host a gig with a Welsh band at your school – maybe you have some budding bands in the school already. Just get in touch and we can help you make it happen!
- Design an album cover for a Welsh language band or animate a short music video
- Play BBC Radio Cymru's brand new Dydd Miwsig Cymru quiz – just follow @BBCRadioCymru on Twitter to find out more
- Dance along to [SONG] on TikTok
- Share photos of your celebrations on social media using the hashtag #DyddMiwsigCymru
