23 November 2017

Dear ,

ATISN 11748 – NHS cars

Thank you for your email of 21 November to the Welsh Government requesting the following information on NHS cars under the Freedom of Information Act (2000). You have asked for this information to be divided by each health board and as the Welsh total.

- How many cars have been leased by Welsh NHS Health Boards for its employees?
- What model of cars are these?
- How much did each car cost to lease (per week, month, or year)?
- If employees have contributed any sum, please make it explicit how much and towards what.

The Welsh Government does not hold this information. It may be possible to obtain this information from individual health boards. I have attached a link to the contact details for each of the health boards as follows:
