Laying 20 days before the Plenary date is at the Minister's request - she wants the Regs laid for the minimum period.

We are sending the advice down on 5 February to allow the Minister enough time to consider the advice and also to allow for recess in February.

We had not been informed. I'll update our calendar. However if its going for approval on 5 February why is laying taking place on 26 February?

The normal procedure is that once LMU receive the clearance email from PO we proceed to laying. We would expect approval and clearance within days. Therefore I would expect to be laying this no later than 9 February. We do not have to wait till 20 days before Plenary to lay an SI.

I'm not sure if you've been involved in the discussions about laying the above Regulations.

The latest is

MA- L for approval to Lay will be sent on 5 February Proposed laying date -
26 February Plenary debate 20 March
