Dear Ms. Griffiths

I wish to express my dismay, indeed my disbelief, at the way you have totally ignored not only the clearly expressed wish of local people and of their elected local representatives, but also the carefully considered professional opinion of the inspector appointed to reach a decision on this matter.

I have been told that you have not even visited the proposed site; if so, and as the value of the landscape was one of the main criteria for the inspector's refusal, surely this should have been a vital part of your deliberations.

Aesthetic considerations apart, this proposed development seems to stand alongside the steadily growing number of chicken- and egg-producing units appearing in this area as an example of the creeping industrialisation of the countryside.

Yours sincerely,

New Radnor.
