Care and support in Wales is changing

The Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act gives you more say in your services.

I am an older person, what does this mean for me?

I am asked what matters to me. I have a strong voice when deciding what I need to achieve well-being.

If I need support to make my voice heard, someone will speak on my behalf.

Assessment looks at what I can do, and what I can do with the help of friends and family, then arranges care and support for me to do what I can't.

I have easy access to information and advice.

The laws to keep me safe are stronger.

More services are available for me to get help when I need it, so problems don't get worse.
