Hywel, just to confirm that we now have the draft ES Review Report and I have given it a first review so it is back with the consultants before it goes to the Owners for their review.

I'm therefore expecting this will be with you in the next few days (most probably next week).

Kind regards

Douglas

Hywel

Just FYI, I understand we'll be receiving a draft submission from the consultants this week so we'll try and get it processed and through to you by the month-end

Kind regards

Douglas
