Dear Colleague,

Further to our letters of the 10, 17, 22, 28 and 30 September, the Welsh Government has extended local coronavirus restrictions.

Local coronavirus restrictions were introduced in Bangor at 6pm on Saturday (10 October) following a sharp rise in cases in the North Wales city.

For more information on the local restrictions, please visit the Welsh Government website at: <https://gov.wales/local-lockdown>

As you're aware these restrictions mean that people will not be able to leave the city and therefore not able to travel internationally. The restrictions are made under regulations and have the full power of UK law. It is therefore incumbent on the travel and insurance industries to take the necessary steps to mitigate the financial impact of the restrictions on members of the travelling public whose travel plans are disrupted as a result.

As mentioned previously, our letters and your responses will be published on the Welsh Government website. These can be found here: <https://gov.wales/letters-welsh-government-uk-travel-industry-and-uk-ministers-about-local-lockdowns-wales>

Yours sincerely,

Vaughan Gething AS/MS
