Hi [Information Redacted]

Yes this was to the strategic engagement group and expectation of members ([Information Redacted]) to share with their colleagues so was not bombarding people with double information. It was the information that [Information Redacted] referenced at the operations group and was what had already been verbally communicated to the group. Had it been new information it would have gone to both groups.

Attached just for reference.

Hey [Information Redacted] ,

Can I ask you to make sure I'm copied in to all emails to WG about asylum issues, including Penally? I've just discovered that you'd emailed answers to questions on Thursday but I wasn't copied in and was unaware.

Thank you!
