Dear

APPLICATION FOR NON-EXECUTIVE MEMBER OF CREATIVE WALES

Thank you for your application to form part of the Creative Wales Board. I am so sorry that it has taken us so long to get back to you with news about your application but, as we have been dealing with the Covid-19 crisis, we felt it right to postpone the whole process.

I am pleased to confirm that you have been shortlisted for interview and would therefore like to invite you to attend an interview on the 22 September at 10:00. The interview will be held via Microsoft Teams and will last approximately 40 minutes.

The focus of the interview conversation will be around your skills and experience in the following areas:

- Your experience of the commercial creative industries in Wales.
- Your understanding of the issues facing the Welsh creative industries and ideas for growing the sector.
- Your understanding of the government/public sector economic development landscape.

Please confirm that this date/time is suitable for you so that I can arrange for a meeting link to be sent to you.

If you are a Welsh speaker and you would like a bilingual interview, or if you have any specific needs or requirements in relation to attending the interview, please let me know when you contact me to confirm your interview date/time so that arrangements can be put in place.

Attached is a copy of the Nolan Principles as the selection panel may well ask about your understanding of the Seven Principles of Public Life.

If you need any further information regarding your interview, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Jason Thomas
