Please note that all of our policies are fully inclusive of all staff regardless of age, marriage (including equal/same sex marriage) and civil partnership, disability, sex, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, gender identity or gender expression.

Our HR Services

Colleagues working in our HR Service provide professional advice, give support and manage processes that enable us all to undertake our roles.

Most of your HR queries can be addressed via the relevant HR policies or guidance pages.

Further advice and support is available – the roles and responsibilities of each part of the HR service are explained on the HR Services Intranet page.

HR Services
Our Corporate Shared Service Centre provides mainly operational and transactional HR services.	Our Expert Services are responsible for developing our HR policies and providing strategic, specialist advice.
HRBPs provide expert strategic support and advice to senior managers on a wide range of people related and workforce issues and interventions. This includes workforce planning, resourcing talent and succession planning, learning and development and employee relations.	Our Organisation Development and Engagement colleagues lead the Future-proofing initiative, including our Learning and Development programme.
