Dear Commissioners,

Provisional Police Settlement 2022-23

Following the announcement today by the Home Office of its Provisional Settlement for Policing in England and Wales, I am writing to provide details of the Welsh Government's component of the Provisional Police Settlement for police forces in Wales for 2022-23.

In order to facilitate a smoother transition towards partial non-domestic rates (NDR) retention for City and Growth Deal Regions, a technical adjustment has been made to the composition of the Welsh Government's contribution to police funding. This amendment sees the proportion of distributed NDR that Police Forces receive reducing from 5% to 0.1%. This has been met by an equivalent increase in the percentage amount received from Revenue Support Grant (RSG). This is purely a technical change, which will not result in any loss of funding for any Police Force: the total of NDR and RSG provided has not been affected.

Since the 2015 Comprehensive Spending Review, the Home Office has made an annual transfer of funding to the Welsh Government in order for the Welsh Government to deliver its agreed contribution to police funding in Wales. From 2022-23 onwards, this additional funding will no longer be transferred and will, instead, be delivered by the Home Office through the Police Grant and Top-Up Grant. This will result in the Welsh Government contribution to policing reducing by £29.93m. This is purely an administrative change and will not result in any change in overall funding for any Police Force.

Rydym yn croesawu derbyn gohebiaeth yn Gymraeg. Byddwn yn ateb gohebiaeth a dderbynnir yn Gymraeg yn Gymraeg ac ni fydd gohebu yn Gymraeg yn arwain at oedi.

We welcome receiving correspondence in Welsh. Any correspondence received in Welsh will be answered in Welsh and corresponding in Welsh will not lead to a delay in responding.

The Home Office announcement set out that taking together the Home Office and Welsh Government components, all Welsh police forces will receive an increase of 5.9% in core funding in 2022-23, before the adjustment made for the transfer of Special Branch funding, compared with the current year. Funding for Special Branch has been transferred out of the Main Police Grant to the Counter-Terrorism Policing Grant, in line with 2021-22 budget. As the total amount being transferred is based on forces' 2021-22 budget and will remain at that for 2022-23, the transfer will have a zero net impact for police forces.

Annex A contains details of the Provisional Settlement for each police force in Wales.

The period of formal consultation on the amount and distribution begins today and closes on 13 January 2022. Responses should be sent to:

Simon Edwards, LGFPSettlement@gov.wales

Comments are invited about the effects (whether positive or adverse) the proposed settlement would have on opportunities for people to use the Welsh language and on treating the Welsh language no less favourably than the English language. In addition, we invite comments on whether the proposed settlement could be formulated or revised to have positive effects, or decreased adverse effects, on opportunities for people to use the Welsh language and on treating the Welsh language no less favourably than the English language.

Copies of responses may be placed in the Welsh Government's library. If you wish your comments to remain confidential, please make this clear in your reply. This will be considered in light of our obligations under the Freedom of Information Act. The Welsh Government will consider all responses received by the due date before the final determination is made and published.

Police and Crime Commissioners are reminded of the requirement to comply with the general equality duties set out in the Equality Act 2010, and also the specific equality duties where applicable. The equality impacts of budgetary options should be assessed and inform any final decisions.

I will consider all consultation responses before making a final determination and publishing the Local Government Finance Report (No. 2) 2022-23 (Police and Crime Commissioners). This report is due to be debated in the Senedd in February 2022.

Yours sincerely

Rebecca Evans AS/MS

Y Gweinidog Cyllid a Llywodraeth Leol
Minister for Finance and Local Government

Notes:

1. Since the 2015 Comprehensive Spending Review, the Home Office has made an annual transfer of funding to the Welsh Government in order for the Welsh Government to deliver its agreed contribution to police funding in Wales. From 2022-23 onwards, this additional funding will no longer be transferred and will, instead, be delivered by the Home Office through the Police Grant and Top Up Grant. This will result in the Welsh Government contribution to policing reducing by £29.93m. This is purely an administrative change and will not result in any change in overall funding for any Police Force.

2. This is the amount of police grant set out in section 3 of the Police Grant Report which includes the allocation under 'Principal Formula' and 'Add Rule 1' (columns a and b) plus the amount 'floor funding' that the Home Office has made available.

3. Figures for 2022-23 are shown before the adjustment made for the transfer of Special Branch funding, as outlined in paragraph 4.8 of the Police Grant Report.
