Questions

Q4. Q1. Should the additional days granted by Class A of Part 4A be retained permanently, permitting temporary uses to take place for up to 56 days (28 days for specified uses) in a calendar year?

Yes

Comments:

My wife and I opened up a camping site on our farm, the 56 days made the difference between us being able to stay here in our home.

We have a small farm of 60 acres and cannot make enough profit out of our cows to survive.

So the extra days permanently would mean that we would have a reliable income, that would go some way to relieving financial stress which we have endured.

We have had great fun educating some people, in which some had never seen a cow or sheep before. Teaching them some of the country side rules and how things work on a farm. I personally found this very rewarding.

Q5. Q2. Do you have any evidence as to any benefits and impacts as a result of introducing the additional number of days for temporary uses to take place since April? If yes, please specify.

Yes

Comments:

I know by talking to the campers that many of them used the local business and local attractions. The extra money that they have spent must have made significant difference to the local business.

There are statistics to prove this on pitch up .com to support this.

Q6. Q3. Do you have views on whether there should be additional restrictions on the use of this PDR to mitigate against potential impacts of making this permanent? If yes, please specify.

Yes

Comments:

The permitted development rights are for such a small amount of time, I struggle to see any negative points

Q7. Q4. Should the number of days for holding a market generally be extended? If Yes, what is an acceptable number of days for holding a market? What conditions should apply to manage the planning impacts?

No Response

Q8. Q5. Should any additional days over the permitted 14 days be provided for markets operated by or on behalf of a local authority?

Yes

Comments:

This would give market holders a opportunity to sell local made produce more frequently.
