

JOBS GROWTH WALES

Supported 3,989
participants aged 16-24 who were not in education, employment or training

86.2%
of participants completed their placement with a positive outcome

74%
secured employment on completion of their placement 71%
of those were with the same JGW employer

18 months after applying for JGW, those employed through JGW earn on average £3,130 per annum more than those who are currently employed, but did not secure a position through JGW

77%
of those in employment are in a permanent or open ended contract, and 8% fixed term for 12 months or more

84.6%
of participants are in some form of employment (higher than the national rate of employment for the 20-24 and 25-34 age cohort) 18 months after applying

82%
of participants felt they had improved their communication skills through their JGW placement, 79% organisational skills, 76% problem solving skills and 72% team working skills

59% of employers are more likely to hire a young person and 44% are more likely to hire someone with limited work experience as a result of their experience of JGW